

Family Education Rights and Privacy Act:

Written copies of policies on student records are available from the Superintendent's Office. These policies include a definition and description of pupil records; parents' and students' rights to review, inspect and challenge those records; policies on maintenance and dissemination of student data; and hearing procedures in cases of appeal by parents or school decisions regarding those records.